				<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The bidder offered 90 calendar days instead of the acceptable bid validity period 31/12/2024. The importance of a bid validity period ensures that bidders' offers remain firm and reliable for a set time, allowing for thorough evaluation and decision-making. It prevents bid inflation, accommodates negotiations and approvals, and promotes fairness by standardizing conditions. This stability and consistency are crucial for an effective procurement process.2. The bidder did not provide the requested bid security of UGX: 27,000,000 (Uganda Shillings: Two Seven Million Only) valid until 31/01/2025 in form of an unconditional bank guarantee provided by a Bank regulated by the Central bank or Bank of Uganda. i.e. the bidder issued a bid security to themselves.3. The bidder did not provide a confirmation letter from the Insurance Regulatory Authority that the Company is not under investigation, suspended or has not had
